PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

The complainant states that Raul ESQUIVEL-Olvera is a citizen of a country other than the United States; that said alien admitted he is deportable; that his testimony is material; that it is impracticable to secure his attendance at trial by subpoena; and that he is a material witness in relation to this criminal charge and should be held or admitted to bail pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3144.

On January 24, 2008, at approximately 0047 hours, Carlos David QUINONEZ Sr. (Defendant) made application for admission into the United States from Mexico at the San Ysidro, California Port of Entry vehicle lanes. Defendant was the sole visible occupant and driver of a red 2000 Toyota Avalon. Defendant approached a U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) officer, presented his California drivers license and told the officer that he was not bringing anything from Mexico. Defendant also told the officer he worked for the county of Orange while presenting a Registered Process Server identification card issued by the Orange County Clerk-Recorder. The CBP officer conducted an inspection of the vehicle and discovered a person concealed in the trunk. CBP officers escorted Defendant and vehicle to secondary for further inspection.

In secondary inspection, a male was removed from the trunk. He is now identified as Raul ESQUIVEL-Olvera and was held as a Material Witness. Material Witness was determined to be a citizen of Mexico with no entitlements to enter the United States.

During a videotaped proceeding Defendant was advised of his Miranda rights. Defendant acknowledged his rights and elected to answer questions without an attorney present. During a subsequent interview Defendant admitted knowledge that an undocumented alien was concealed in the vehicle. Defendant stated he decided to smuggle the undocumented alien into the United States because he felt sorry for him. Defendant stated he was not to receive any sort of compensation for smuggling the person into the United States and intended to take him to Orange County.

A videotaped interview was conducted with Material Witness. Material Witness stated he is a citizen of Mexico and has no documents to lawfully enter the United States. Material Witness stated he was picked up by Defendant at a hotel in Tijuana and placed in the trunk of a vehicle. Material Witness stated his wife made the smuggling arrangements with Defendant and was to pay $2,800.00 U.S. dollars to be smuggled into the United States. Material Witness stated he intended to travel to Anaheim, California to resume residence and employment.
